Bohumir Kryl

America's greatest contralto. Every home that has a phonograph has been sweetened by the magic of her voice.

Chautauqua's Queen. A daughter of the South whose patriotic readings will inspire you with love of country.

A little man with a big heart, who has been on the firing line for 15 years battling for social justice.

Former Governor of Ohio and foremost orator of the Republican party. A great patriotic event.

World's greatest cornetist and his celebrated Bohemian Band, in concerts of soul-stirring music.

A. Festival of Music---A Revival of Patriotism

Schumanns Quintet

The classics brought within the understanding of all. A stringed organization under the direction of Carl Lampert, former violinist with Theodore Thomas Orchestra.

William Durieux

One of Belgium's leading cello soloists with the Victor Herbert and Damrosch orchestras. Former member of the famous Kaltenborn quartet.

Royal Hawaiians

A company of native singers and players who present a program of the haunting melodies which have set the whole world whistling.

Royal Dragoons

Nine young men, singers and instrumentalists. A brass band and orchestra. A glee club of trained voices and each man an artist in his particular line.

Wells Company

An organization of artists presenting musical and dramatic sketches.

JOHN B. RATTO

Character Impersonator

—AND—

Prince of Entertainers

Dr. James L. Gordon

Pastor of the First Congregational church of Washington, D. C. One of the great pulpit orators of the generation.

Hon. J. W. Abercrombie

U. S. Congressman from Alabama. One of the representative men of the south. His attitude on the Negro problem should be heard by all.

Harvey Smith McCowan

Author, banker and lecturer. An authority on boy problems and a champion of the unsung heroes of everyday life.

Sarah Tyson Rorer

America's one real authority on Home Economics. She tells us what not to eat. On the staff of the Ladies' Home Journal.

Mildred Leo Clemens

Mark Twain's cousin in a beautiful illustrated lecture on "Rambling Through Paradise—Hawaii." On same evening with Royal Hawaiians.

Aside from the splendid music and inspiring addresses, there will be heaps of laughs and plenty of good, clean humor by KATHARINE RIDGEWAY, JOHN B. RATTO and the WELLS COMPANY
